The great object of this work is to present a Universal History, suitable, in form, extent, and arrangement, to the wants of the mass of American readers. The editor gives the grography of each country whose history is presented, and pays careful attention to chromology, so that at every page, and in every chapter, the reader may know the place where and when, an event happened. This plan, together with that of presenting each nation separately, cannot full to render everything attractive.—Wolchman and Reflexor.

Respectfully,
I, L. F. Brudley, now managing the farm of Dr. Shelby, make the following statement: We have had for more than one week, one of Col. Cheatham's mowing and reaping machines, we havetried it in clover and grain blown and tan-gled, and I now state that it moves and cuts cleaner than the sythe blade, and that it will mow per day as much as 14 hands, and it can respet least twenty-four acres per day, june29-4&w.
